the Commission better be directed to inquire and report what proportion of the expenses of the war with China 1839-42 are fairly attributable to the desire of the British on the one side to secure, and of the Chinese Government to resist the cession of this Island, and whether such expenditure was not wholly incurred in the interest of and on behalf of shipping and a Sinking Fund to repay the same within a fixed term of years or is not a legitimate annual charge on Shipping, and, if it is, what interest should be charged and what term of years fixed for repayment?

Such an inquiry is as legitimate and as sensible as the inquiry about the expenditure on the buildings and boats of the Harbour Department, which date back to the same period, and far more through-going and satisfactory. The first Harbour Office was on Pedder's Hill. It was moved thence and the ground sold to private owners, and with the money a new Harbour Office was built where the fountain stands now. When the adjoining site was acquired for the City Hall, Government moved the Harbour Office to its present site, the Funds of the City Hall paying for the expenses of removal. What a pretty little sum the members of the Commission will have to work out to arrive at the net cost to the Treasury of the present Harbour Department building! As the China Mail points out, that branch of the inquiry alone will take a century, and the result, when obtained will be of valueless. The inquiry we suggest as to the cost of the War is far more practical and far more easy, and the appointment of that cost between the shipping and other interests presents no difficulties, as the treaties clearly show that Hongkong was acquired and has been held solely in the interests of shipping.

Won by a neck after a grand race; three-quarters of a length dividing second and third.

The winner, Cythus, the property of Mr. A.
Calvert, has at last won a big race, his performances hitherto having been a little below mediocrity. Last year, for instance, he was unplaced seven times and managed to win only a small plate at Brighton. He has no more engagements this year. Kilcock did well last year, winning the Doncaster Spring Handicap, the Wokingham Handicap at Ascot, and the Challenge Plate and All-aged Stakes at Newbury, besides being second in the Victor Wild in the Jubilee Stakes. This is his first public appearance this year. Victor Wild, the hero of this race in 1895 and 1896, has shown us what a grand horse he is by running an excellent third when carrying two pounds more than he did last year.

LOCAL AND GENERAL.

AMONG the Jubilee Addresses to the Queen will be one from the Colombo Chamber of Commerce.

The War Office has been inquiring the price at which the Australian colonies can supply compressed hay and oats.

A NEUTRAL zone, eight hundred metres broad, has been established between the Greek and Turkish armies in Greece.

MARSHALL'S picture "The Sea Hath Its Perils" has been purchased for 3000 guineas for the New South Wales Nautical Art Gallery.

At the Woolwich Arsenal the force now consists of nearly 17,000 men during the day, reduced at 5.30 o'clock in the afternoon by large night shifts.

A CRUISE for the German navy named the Victoria Louise has just been launched at Bremen. She is of 5500 tons displacement and is fitted with triple screws calculated to give a speed of 22 knots.

An important Customs notification with reference to the West River trade and the authorized routes for vessels will be found in our advertising columns. It seems a little odd that these rules should be laid down only by the Customs.
Have the British Consular officials no say in such matters?

FROM our Australian exchanges we learn that the drought in the Western district of New South Wales is the severest and longest in the memory of the oldest inhabitant. In the northern districts frosts are doing great damage and on the Clearance there has been a fearfully heavy destruction of potatoes and sugar cane.

THE first-class cruiser Powerful, Captain the Hon. Hedworth Lambton, was inspected at Portsmouth on 6th May by Admiral Sir Nowell Salmon, V.C., Commander-in-Chief, prior to being passed into the A Division of the Fleet Reserve. After the Jubilee Naval Review she is (says the L. and C. Express) to be sent to the China Station, and is to have a complement of 840 officers and men.

IN consequence of the heavy rain this morning that portion of Queen's Road in front of the Parade Ground was well nigh flooded at an early hour. The rain had carried immense quantities of sand from the sloping surface of the Parade Ground, and the sand soon choked the side channel with the result that quite a miniature lake was formed. A large gang of labours was promptly set to work there and soon had the footpath clear again.

MR. H. M. Stanley maintains that "quiet and contentment" will not prevail in South Africa until "the storm clouds have been broken and the political atmosphere has been cleared." He suggests the despatch of a Peace Commission to K. O'Farrell, for the purpose of arranging a definite agreement between Great Britain and the South African Republic; but he confesses the Commission would be of no avail unless backed up by battalions equal in strength and numbers to those of the Boers.

It is stated that the thanksgiving service outside the west door of St. Paul's is to occupy fifteen minutes, eleven of which will be taken up by the "Te Deum" specially composed for the occasion by Dr. George C. Martin, the organist of St.
Paul's. A choir, some 550 strong, drawn almost entirely from the churches of London, will be assembled upon the upper portions of the steps leading to the west door of the cathedral, while the massed bands of the Royal Artillery, and of the School of Military Music at Kneller Hall, numbering nearly 200 players, will strengthen and support the singers.

WE (N. C. Daily News) understand that a Committee has been appointed to prepare suitable plans for celebrating the Missionary Jubilee of Dr. McLeod. The Missionary Association of Shanghai, at their meeting of last Tuesday, elected him their president for the ensuing year, and it is felt that some way should be devised of doing honour to a man so generally esteemed as Dr. McLeod when he completes fifty years of life and work in China. The names of the Committee have not been published, but we hope they will afford the community as a whole (and not only the missionary body) opportunity of sharing in the celebration.

PREPARATIONS for the celebration of the Diamond Jubilee are being vigorously pushed forward by the Chinese residents in the Western portion of the city. A very large arch, or rather its framework, has been erected a little East of the markets on Queen's Road, and several similar structures have been raised in Bonham Strand, Winkler St., and other localities.
In the vicinity of the Harbour Office a number of music stands have been built at the corners of by-alleys and out towards West Point a great washed, probably to be used as a theatre, has lately been constructed. A number of European residents in various parts have arranged for illuminations in gas, and the front of the Club Gardens has already been fitted with gas jets in the shape of a large crown and the Imperial star and also the figures "1837" and "1897." It is reported that there is a regular boom in fancy lanterns, and, given fine weather, the display should be a remarkably fine one.

At the corner of Ice House Lane and the Praya Central, on the seaward side, three or four vendors of ice cream, sweetmeats, and various ill-looking Chinese delicacies have taken their stand for some time past, not in the gutter as usual, but on the footpath, with the result that pedestrians are frequently obliged to step into the road, a most unpleasant thing in wet weather. Frequently these men are surrounded by a crowd of from twenty-five to fifty coolies, yet the Police stroll by and take not the slightest notice of the obstruction. How is it that coolies are allowed to habitually block thoroughfares in this manner while Europeans are promptly pounced upon by the Police and fined heavily for the first and slightest offence? It certainly appears as if Hongkong possessed one law for the yellow man and another, much more harsh and strict, for the white man; or is it some prejudice towards the yellow race in those who have been entrusted with the administration of that law?

An interesting little ceremony took place yesterday at Pedder's Hill, when several members of the local Press availed themselves of an opportunity to show their regard for one of their colleagues, who left to-day by the "Empress" liner to take up an appointment in Japan. The recipient of the token of esteem (a copy of Dr. Eitel's excellent "History of Hongkong") was Mr. H. O. Palmer, who has for several years performed the duties of proof reader in the Daily Press office and who by his quiet manner, efficient workmanship and invariable courtesy endeared himself to all his colleagues. The volume was inscribed:— Presented to MR. H. O. PALMER

By his colleagues on the eve of his departure from Hongkong as a token of their esteem and as evidence of their best wishes for his success in the enterprise with which he is to be connected in Japan.

Hongkong, 8th June 1897.

Mr. Palmer acknowledged the compliment in his usual felicitous style, and this forenoon was escorted to the steamer by a number of his friends and colleagues who there bade him a happy farewell.

ANOTHER case of carrying snatching was dealt with at the Magistrate's day. A bricklayer was charged with snatching a gold earring worth $35 from a boatwoman. She was walking near the Canton steamboat wharf when she felt a tug from behind. Turning round she found the defendant running away. She gave chase until he was arrested, with the result that Mr.
Wodehouse sentenced him to six months "hard" and ordered him to be flogged with twelve strokes with the birch—harder still!

At the Harbour Office this morning, before Commander R. Murray Ramsey, R.N., an A.B. of the British ship Baldwin Hill, named H. F.
Hansen, was charged with assault by William Charles, the steward of the vessel. The assault took place on the high seas on May 5th and 8th. A fine of $1, in default 3 days' gaol, was imposed. Three sailors named McCormack, H.
Gallagher and A. Elmore were charged with a like offence on May 1st and 14th. They were dismissed as they had each been fined $5, by the Captain.

MR. SAM MARSH has just returned from a tour through Japan and a successful season in Shanghai, where his skating rink and other pastimes were well patronised. We understand that he proposes to start here a series of moonlight excursions, to enable residents to get out on the briny deep for a puff of fresh air and recreation in the sweltering summer months.
He says the first excursion starts about 8.30 p.m. on Saturday
